

A Brother PR1060W embroidery machine is shown in a close-up, angled view. The machine is white and black, with a large embroidery head. The head has 10 needles, each with a white cap. The machine is currently stitching a white baseball cap. The cap has the text "NEW YORK" embroidered on it in purple. The machine is set up with various colored threads (purple, yellow, blue, green) and is positioned on a wooden surface. The background is a dark blue gradient.
